ZONING ORDINANCE MAP AMENDMENT PROCESS

GENERAL

The purpose of the zoning ordinance map amendment process is to obtain City Council approval and must comply with the provisions of the City of West Jordan Municipal Code. Processing times will vary based upon availability of city staff time and the completeness of the submitted application. Checklists for a zoning ordinance map amendment are attached and are located on the City's website at www.westjordan.utah.gov.

APPLICANT'S INITIAL CONTACT WITH CITY STAFF

Your initial contact with city staff will take place with the Planning Department either by telephone or by meeting at the community development counter. If you are not familiar with city processes and requirements city staff can briefly discuss the processes and requirements with you.

AUTHORIZED APPLICANT

An application for a zoning ordinance map amendment on any property shall be one of the following:

1. The owner of the property
2. One or more joint owners of property who own individually, or as a group, a majority interested in the property
3. Both of the property owners where property is held in joint tenancy
4. Seventy five percent (75%) or more, of the owners of property in the area covered by the application when the application covers more than one property

APPLICATION SUBMITTAL

The zoning ordinance map amendment process can be initiated by submitting the application, along with items listed on zoning ordinance map amendment checklist. The application will be not be accepted until a determination has been made that the application is complete.

PLANNING COMMISSION REVIEW AND ACTION

Once the development team has completed their review and determined it is complete, the City Planner will schedule the zoning ordinance map amendment for a Planning Commission meeting for their review and action. The following items will be completed as part of this task:

- A. Scheduling and Public Notices - The City Planner will schedule the zoning ordinance map amendment for review by the Planning Commission and arrange for publication of notice of a public hearing.
- B. Review and Action - For a zoning ordinance map amendment to be considered by the Planning Commission, the applicant must attend the Planning Commission meeting to explain the proposal and answer questions. Once all questions have been answered to the satisfaction of the Planning Commission, the Planning Commission will take action in one of the following forms:
 1. Make a positive recommendation to the City Council
 2. Make a negative recommendation to the City Council
 3. Postpone were further information or input is necessary
 4. Continue the application to a future date within 45 days after holding the public hearing. If the Planning Commission fails to forward a recommendation on the proposed amendment within 60 days, after closing the public hearing, it shall be forwarded to the City Council as if the Planning Commission made a negative recommendation

Notice of the action will be sent to the applicant regarding the Planning Commission's action.

CITY COUNCIL REVIEW AND ACTION

After the Planning Commission has reviewed the proposed zoning ordinance map amendment, made its recommendation and passed those along to the party requesting the amendment, the amendment can then be reviewed by the City Council. The following activities will take place as part of this task:

- A. Scheduling and Public Notices - The Community Development Director will schedule the proposal for review by the City Council and arrange for publication of a notice of a public hearing.
- B. Review and Action - For the zoning ordinance map amendment to be approved by the City Council, the applicant must attend the City Council meeting to explain the proposal and answer questions. Once all questions have been answered to the satisfaction of the City Council, the City Council will take action in one of the following forms
 1. The City Council may approve the zoning ordinance map amendment.
 2. The City Council may change the text other than as proposed but within the scope of the notice given for the Public Hearing.
 3. The City Council may reject the proposed zoning ordinance map amendment.

Notice of the action will be sent to the applicant regarding the City Council's action.
